MEET YOUR FACILITATOR

Amy Savage, Certified Master of The Leadership Challenge®

Amy is passionate about helping people on their inward journey towards reaching their potential and making a positive and lasting impact at work and in the world. Her personal values of 'people, growth, vulnerability, courage, and spirituality' drive her work and are the main fabric of her life. As a Consultant and Account Manager at FlashPoint, she draws on 20 years of experience developing over 40,000 leaders globally through the LPI® and The Leadership Challenge® across a variety of industries including healthcare, finance, education, technology, and non-profits. You'll find her facilitating transformational leadership experiences, coaching, and managing client relationships. Whether working with Fortune 100 companies or non-profits, her specialty is coaching individuals and teams through a research-based framework which enables insight, alignment, and focused strategy for continued leadership development and growth. When she's not coaching and facilitating transformational leadership experiences for clients, she volunteers her time doing advocacy work to end the global dirty water crisis through the organization charity: water.

Challenge is the opportunity for greatness, and the most significant contribution leaders make is not to today's bottom line; it is to the long-term development of people and institutions so they can adapt, change, prosper, and grow.
